Board of Directors for the Sutton Coldfield Catholic Schools Multi Academy Company

24th June 2013

Dear Friends and Colleagues,

It is with pleasure that we now have the opportunity to announce the outcome of the recently undertaken elections and consultations to ascertain the individuals that will form the Board of Directors of the Sutton Coldfield Catholic Schools Multi Academy Company upon its incorporation.

The Proposed Foundation Directors will be as follows:

Tony Mcguigan (Chair, Holy Cross)
Patricia Platt (Chair, St Nicholas)
Peter McCann (Chair, Bishop Walsh)
Kirsty Hill (Chair, St Joseph's)
Bernard Coeulle (Governor, St Joseph's)
Richard Baizley (Governor, Holy Cross)
Martin Jackson (Governor, Bishop Walsh)
Father Neil Bayliss (Father, Holy Cross Catholic Church)

The recently conducted parent elections have decided that the chosen two candidates will be as follows:

Louise Meehan (Governor, St Joseph's)
Ryan Hobson (Governor, St Nicholas)

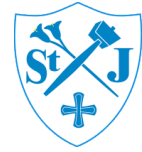

The recently conducted staff elections have decided that the chosen two candidates will be as follows:

Bev Millman (Governor, St Nicholas)
Catherine Carr (Governor, St Joseph's)

In addition to the fourteen Directors named above, the Board of Directors will also consist of two Head Teachers, that have been agreed upon by the Head Teachers of all four schools as follows:

John Farrell (Head Teacher, Bishop Walsh)
Matthew Emery (Head Teacher, St Nicholas)

We hope that you all will join us on congratulating the chosen Directors and additionally wish them success in driving the strategy and direction of the Sutton Coldfield Catholic Schools Multi Academy Company due to be incorporated on 1st October 2013. We look forward to communicating further with you as we proceed with this exciting endeavour.
